nrvthrive

NRV Thrive works with organizations and community members across our region to collectively increase access to affordable, nutritious food through shared learning, informed advocacy, and responsive strategic action.

Our shared goal is to help more people in our community thrive. Learn more at cfnrv.org/thrive.

The NRV Food Assistance Directory

2023-2024
Connecting community members to food assistance programs

This directory contains the details of food assistance programs across the New River Valley in the counties of Floyd, Giles, Montgomery, and Pulaski as well as the city of Radford. We hope that community members seeking food assistance find it to be a useful resource to get connected to the assistance they need. The information in this directory was collected in spring 2023 and it is possible that it may have changed. We recommend contacting the program ahead of time to ensure you have the most up-to-date information.

What information is in this directory?

The directory is organized alphabetically with section for each county as well as the city of Radford. We list several details for each program, including whether the program has more than one food assistance initiative. Please see below for an example entry and the details on what each section means. If a program’s listing is highlighted in gray (like the one below), that means anyone in need is eligible to utilize one or more of their programs.

- Organization & address: the name of the organization offering food assistance and its physical address.

- Contact info: typically includes the person who manages the program along with their phone number and email. May also include the organization's website.

- Schedule: includes when the program is open to clients. It may include information on whether an appointment is needed and how often a client can access services.

- Program info & product types: see the next page for more details. Listed products can change based on supplies available.

- Who is eligible? This section shares if there are any restrictions on who can access the program. For example, some programs serve only county or city residents, some only serve children; those that have no restrictions are labeled as “Any in need”.

- Required documents: some programs ask for ID, proof of income, family size, residency, etc. What a program will accept for documentation depends, so please ask ahead of time.

- ADA? Indicates whether a program is ADA accessible, which can refer to parking spots, ramps, elevators, etc. Y = accessible, N = not accessible.
Product information

- Backpack program: often coordinated through schools, these programs provide children with backpacks containing items such as shelf-stable foods.

- Choice Pantry: allows a recipient to choose from an assortment of shelf-stable items and may also include fresh produce, frozen meat, eggs, milk and bread.

- Community Garden: usually a place for individuals to grow their own fruits and vegetables in a shared garden space.

- Food Recovery/Gleaning: excess crops donated by and collected from farmers’ fields or excess food donated from commercial outlets (groceries, etc.)

- Mini-Pantry: typically a small, outdoor structure that can be accessed at anytime by anyone to take what they need. They are usually stocked with shelf-stable foods and sometimes personal care items.

- Mobile Market/Pantry: often a combination of fresh produce and nonperishable items brought to central locations.

- Other Support Services: can include referral to additional support services, thrift store, housing, transportation, utilities, case management, social services, workforce development and nutrition counseling.

- Pre-Pack Boxes: a pre-packed box (or bag) of an assortment of canned and/or fresh items will be given.

- Prepared Meal: a hot or cold meal depending on the site. Some meals are offered to-go while others are intended to be eaten on-site.

- SNAP: Farmers Markets where SNAP benefits are accepted and that often double the value of SNAP when spent on fruits and vegetables.

Product types

The types of items that each program offers varies and may change depending on their current supplies. The directory lists what a program typically offers and the below list shares examples of what each product type may include. Some programs offer items in addition to food, like infant care items, personal care items, and pet food. In the directory, a plus sign is used to indicate the non-food items.

Food types

- Fresh: items such as whole fruits, vegetables, and bread.

- Frozen: items such as frozen vegetables and soups.

- Refrigerated: perishable items such as dairy and meat.

- Shelf-stable: pantry items such as canned beans, vegetables, and meats.

Product types (indicated by a plus + sign)

- Infant care: items such as diapers, wipes, formula.

- Personal care: items such as toothbrushes and toilet paper.

- Pet food: typically food for indoor pets such as cats or dogs.
