Connecting community members to food assistance programs (updated November 2025)

This directory contains the details of food assistance programs in Virginia's New River Valley within the counties of Floyd, Giles, Montgomery, and Pulaski as well as the city of Radford. We hope that community members seeking food assistance find it to be a useful resource to get connected to the assistance they need.

The information in this directory may have changed since it was collected in November 2025. We recommend contacting the program ahead of time to ensure you have the most up-to-date information.

What information is in this directory?

The directory is organized alphabetically with section for each county as well as the City of Radford. We list several details for each program, including whether the program has more than one food assistance initiative. Please see below for an example entry and the details on what each section means. If a program's listing is highlighted in gray (like the one below), that means anyone in need is eligible to utilize one or more of their programs.

- Organization & Address: the name of the organization offering food assistance and its physical address.
- Contact Info: typically includes the person who manages the program along with their phone number and email. May also include the organization's website.
- Schedule: includes when the program is open to clients. It may include information on how often a client can access services.
- Program Info & Product Types: see the next page for more details. Listed products can change based on supplies available.
- Who is Eligible? This section shares if there are any restrictions on who can access the program. For example, some programs serve only county or city residents, some only serve children; those that have no restrictions are labeled as "All are welcome".
- Required Documents: some programs ask for ID, proof of income, family size, residency, etc. What a program will accept for documentation depends, so please ask ahead of time.
- ADA? (Americans with Disabilities Act) Indicates whether an organization is ADA accessible, which can refer to parking spots, ramps, elevators, etc.
- Y = accessible, N = not accessible.

Product Types

The types of items that each program offers varies and may change depending on their current supplies. The directory lists what a program typically offers and the below list shares examples of what each product type may include. Some programs offer items in addition to food, like infant care items, personal care items, and pet food. In the directory, a plus sign is used to indicate the non-food items.

Food Types

- Fresh: items such as whole fruits, vegetables, and bread.
- Frozen: items such as frozen vegetables and soups.
- Refrigerated: perishable items such as dairy and meat.
- Shelf-stable: canned and boxes items such as beans, vegetables, fruits, and meats, pasta, sauces, etc.

Product Types (indicated by a plus + sign)

+ Clothing: some programs offer clothing for free or reduced price.

+ Infant care: items such as diapers, wipes, formula, etc.

+ Household: items such as dish soap, laundry detergent, etc.

+ Personal care: items such as toothbrushes, toothpaste, adult diapers, menstrual pads/tampons, shower/bath products, etc.

🐾 Pet food: typically food for cats or dogs.

Program Information

- Backpack Program: often coordinated through schools, these programs provide children with backpacks containing items such as shelf-stable foods.
- Choice Pantry: allows a recipient to choose from an assortment of shelf-stable items and may also include fresh produce, frozen meat, eggs, milk and bread.
- Community Fridge: often located at an outdoor location and available 24/7. Others are located in buildings such as libraries. Typically allow recipients to take what they need.
- Community Garden: usually a place for individuals to grow their own fruits and vegetables in a shared garden space.
- Mini-Pantry: typically a small, outdoor structure that can be accessed 24/7 and recipients take what they need. Stocked with shelf-stable foods and sometimes personal care items.
- Mobile Market/Pantry: often a combination of fresh produce and nonperishable items brought to central locations.
- Other Support Services: can include referral to services such as to a thrift store, housing, transportation, utilities, social services, workforce, and/or nutrition counseling.
- Pre-Packed Boxes or Bags: a pre-packed box or bag of an assortment of canned and/or fresh items will be given.
- Prepared Meal: typically a hot or frozen meal. Some meals are offered to-go while others are intended to be eaten on-site.
- SNAP: places where Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits are accepted.

About NRV Thrive

NRV Thrive is an initiative through the Community Foundation of the New River Valley. Thrive is a network of organizations addressing food security and access issues.

These organizations address these issues in many ways, including through farms, food banks and pantries, community gardens, and meals programs -- all with the shared goal of helping more people in our community thrive.

By working together through this network, we are able to better address regional needs. Learn more about Thrive's work & access this directory at www.cfnrv.org/thrive or via the below QR code.
